THE HIGH-FIVE!

High-Fives are a dime a dozen.

Victoria Vikings, though, gave the jumping, slapping celebration new meaning March 17 at Dalhousie.

No meaningless goal or touchdown ...

... but an unprecedented fifth straight Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union basketball title!

Coach Ken Shields and Co. ascended the throne with a 70-62 win over Brandon Bobcats (Great Plains) in the national showdown.

In the 21 years since the W.P. McGee Trophy first was presented, only one other school (Windsor, 1966-67) has managed back-to-back successes.

If the Vikings' string doesn't make Canada West the strongest conference in the country, check out the Pronghorns of Lethbridge.

Nosed by two points by Victoria in the CWUAA final, the Pronghorns qualified for the Final Four through the East Regional, then finished third in the CIAU tournament.

Vikings also celebrated an individual jewel when guard Eli Pasquale captured the prestigious Mike Moser Memorial Trophy as the country's top player.

It was the third straight year the Moser has come to Canada West - and no conference has won it as many as three consecutive seasons.

In the women's section, the Calgary Dimnies of coach Donna Roman ended Victoria's four-year conference reign.

Calgary finished third in the national tournament at Manitoba, defeating Alberta Pandas 72-65.

Alberta had entered the CIAU series as a wild-card team.

Statistically, in the men's division, Tilleran led the country in scoring (31.2) and free throws (98.0).

Mike Suderman of Alberta Golden Bears was No. 1 in field goals (67.3).
